Memorandum Endorsement

United States v. Datta, 11-cr-0102 (LAK), 14-cv-8653 (LAK)

The motion for compassionate release is denied.

First, movant has not demonstrated the exhaustion of his administrative remedies.

Second, there has been no demonstration of extraordinary and compelling circumstances.

Third, in all of the circumstances, including movant's repeated, frivolous attacks on his conviction, the Court, upon consideration of the 3553(a) factors, would deny compassionate release in the exercise of its discretion.

SO ORDERED.
